

TUESDAY	BREAKOUTS 3 - 11.15AM - 12.15PM	LOCATION
Wellbeing 2.0	Why living on 'red alert' is making us sick. John El-Mokadem & Karen DiMarco. Insight into the Principles is a key component behind many radical remissions from chronic illnesses, a hypothesis supported by our 2017 study. What if this understanding could transform our facilitation of "health"?	Players Lounge
What is the Understanding?	George Pransky	Fez
Mental Health 2.0	Bipolar - A New Understanding, A new life - Yael Abrahamson & Christine Heath	Boardroom
Practitioner 2.0	Client session Mark Howard. A chance for practitioners to watch a client session and ask questions of the practitioner	100 Club
Family & Relationships 2.0	Dealing with people we find difficult. Claire Shutes, Sarah David & David Hill. Go on, admit it, most of us have people we really dont like. This can lead to difficulties and conflict.	Marquee
Business & Leadership 2.0	Conflict & Tension, business as usual or occasional glitch - Stephanie Fox and Barbara Patterson. Tensions and conflicts are common at work. Why is this and what is it that can improve these situations?	Mezzanine
Life 2.0	Whats a principle between coaches? What is different about principles based coaching. Are there ways in which coaching changes when you are working from a Three Principles basis? Michael Neill.	Tulip
Society & Education 2.0	Fostering Resilience in Social Care & Leadership - Chantal Burns. The story from social workers and leaders. Consciousness as a fundamental leadership variable.	BOX 2/3/4
Featuring New Topics & Speakers	A chance to hear a range of speakers that you may not have heard before working in a range of areas featuring Steve Adair, Gary Burton & Steph Wilson	BOX 6/7

TUESDAY	BREAKOUTS 4 - 1.45PM - 2.45PM	LOCATION
Wellbeing 2.0	Our Daily Potential for Wellbeing - Mark Howard What is our potential for well being on a daily basis? A question Dr Howard will consider based on his experiences as a clinical psychologist	Marquee
What is the Understanding?	Barb Patterson	Boardroom
Mental Health 2.0	Mental Health Challenges - Christine Heath & Judy Sedgeman	BOX 2/3/4
Practitioner 2.0	Client Session Aaron Turner. A chance for practitioners to watch a client session and ask questions of the practitioner	Fez
Family & Relationships 2.0	Keeping it Fresh: long term relationships. Shaul and Chana Rosenblatt what does time have to do with the quality of our relationships?	Mezzanine
Starts 1.30pm	Research Forum. Professor Anthony Kessel, Chantal Burns & Linda Ramus. Discover how and why academic research and a strong evidence base are crucial for the credibility and widespread acceptance of the 3 Principles in practice - whether the setting is health services, schools, addiction clinics, prisons or elsewhere. We will also share some key pointers for successful research and steer people towards current projects.	Players Lounge
Life 2.0	Q&A - Jack Pransky, George Pransky & Dicken Bettinger. A chance to ask your questions of an experienced and distinguished panel of first generation practitioners	Tulip
Society & Education 2.0	Giving kids a real sense of themselves and what difference that makes. Brooke Wheeldon-Reece & Ashley Hunt. A talk based on the work of The Cypress Center's Spark programme with schools and young people in America	100 Club
Featuring New Topics & Speakers	A chance to hear a range of speakers that you may not have heard before working in a range of areas featuring Ana Holmbook, Anna Debenham & Jill Whalen	BOX 6/7